

Long bio

Nicole Fleshin is a singer-songwriter from Bradford, Ontario. Frequently compared to a young Avril Lavigne and Lady Gaga, her edgy and energetic repertoire pulls strongly from both pop, and rock genres, with the intrigue of alternative music.

Passionate, bold vocals and heartfelt lyrics, coupled with her love of storytelling are captured in her original music. Exploring themes of trust, friendship, growth, and standing up for what you believe in, Nicole constructs the narrative of life from a 16 year old perspective, with the wisdom of someone much older.

“People come and go in life, but music has always been here for me. Whether I’m listening to my favorite song or picking up the guitar - it always gets me back up on my feet again, and keeps me moving forward. I was bullied as a kid, and turned to music to process how I was feeling - that was my first song, and it forged my connection to this craft.”

As a member of the Ontario Musicians Co-operative Inc., Nicole discovered her artist brand and identity through the Summer Emerging Artists Program. She also developed a formal marketing plan and performed her original music multiple times per week on the OMCI Emerging Artist Online Livestream.

Now fully embracing Tiktok, Nicole is building a buzz on social media with her 1200+ followers, and remains active on Instagram and Twitter. Her debut single will be released in Summer 2021. Currently gearing up to hit the stage once COVID-19 resolves and live performances are allowed again, Nicole is excited to share her music, and her story.
